Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is the year 2000, the start of the new Millennium, and Christine Ferrier, more confident now after her escape from a near death encounter the previous Spring, is positive that she has reached the turning point in her plan to build a safe and secure life in brownstone Brooklyn for herself and her two children. Sipping champagne, surrounded by friends and family at the gala New Year's celebration at The Breakers in Newport, the future looks bright and the opportunities limitless. She has signed on as a volunteer in her neighbor, Democrat Emily Goodman's primary campaign for Congress. She intends to double her efforts to complete her graduate studies to eventually achieve her dream of becoming an architect. She will be more outgoing, finally able to participate in her community. Despite Christine's insistence that the unidentified victim is not their responsibility, her father is already claiming to have seen the murderer and to have recognized his Brooklyn accent. He insists on informing her tenant, former Detective Frank Otaviano. In the weeks that follow this is only the initial distraction. Frank's wife, quintessential homebody, Tessa, has discovered that the original owner of their brownstone had been charged with three murders. She announces her intention of proving his innocence and, of course, Christine's help is expected in solving the one hundred year old case. On the political front, her brother Eric's best buds Drew Townsend and Pudge Wainwright are candidate and manager...
