Excerpt: . . . pontiff distributed the wonder-working relics; and nothing more lamentable on the other, than the stupid eagerness and devotion with which the deluded multitude received them, and suffered themselves to be persuaded, that a portion of stinking oil, taken from the lamps which burned at the tombs of the martyrs, had a supernatural efficacy to sanctify its possessors, and to defend them from all dangers both of a temporal and spiritual nature. in. Several attempts were made in this century to lay The . r down a proper and judicious method of explainir. , . ior. mg the Scriptures. Of this nature were the two hiej- books of Junilius, the African, concerning the various parts of the divine law f a work destitute of precision and method, and by which it appears that the author had not sufficient knowledge and penetration for the task he...
