Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Students Catechism on Book-Keeping, Accounting and Banking Although numerous works on Book-keeping have been published during recent years, the experience of examiners and teachers clearly indicates that the requirements of the average student have not been entirely met, and that some new method of instruction is needed. Examiners report, year after year, that the answers given by candidates are not satisfactory, and every teacher of Book-keeping knows how few students there are who can give clear and concise answers to questions on the subject, even after months of study. This defect on the part of students frequently arises not so much from want of general knowledge of the subject as from inability to find words to give appropriate expression to the specific knowledge which they are called Upon to display. In a recent lecture on Executorship Accounts, Mr. Roger N.Carter, M. Com. F.C.A., impressed upon students the necessity of learning good definitions of the various terms used, and added: A long experience of students has taught mo that, whilst many of them know what...
